

Annie Cast

Thank you all for auditioning. We are excited about this cast. Please check over the entire list – some of you are listed multiple times. Everyone with speaking roles should be at our read-through on Thursday, February 7, at 7:00 p.m. in the multi-purpose room (unless someone wants to host us at their home - email me at bwright@wheatonchristian.org). Those that do not have speaking roles are invited to come but are not required to be there.
